

USEFUL WEBSITES

for ESL STUDENTS, PARENTS and TEACHERS

<http://www.manythings.org/>

Interesting Things for ESL Students is a free website that includes activities to help ESL students improve vocabulary, grammar, sentence structure, pronunciation, spelling, and listening skills. There are quizzes, word games, word puzzles, proverbs, slang expressions, anagrams, a random-sentence generator and other computer assisted language learning activities. This site is non-commercial and has no advertising.

<http://www.eslpartyland.com/>

ESL PartyLand describes itself as the "Fun Place to Learn English as a Second Language". This free site features relevant topical lessons, quizzes, and games providing opportunities to use English in different settings, reinforce new concepts, and expose students to new vocabulary. For teachers, the site offers materials and teaching ideas for every type of classroom and learner. Learn how to teach ESL through music, film, video, and the Internet and find materials and lesson plans to use when teaching conversation, grammar, listening, and speaking skills.

<http://starfall.com>

Starfall is a web site that opened in 2002 as a free public service to teach children to read with a systematic phonics approach. In conjunction with phonemic awareness practice, it is perfect for preschool, kindergarten, first grade, second grade, special education, home-school, and English as a Second Language development.
